

ANOINTED UNIVERSITY – ANUSITY WORLDWIDE

TUITION FEES POLICY

Introduction:

The tuition fees policy of ANOINTED UNIVERSITY outlines the principles and guidelines that govern the determination, payment, and refund of tuition fees for students enrolled in the university. This policy ensures transparency, fairness, and financial sustainability for both the institution and its students.

1. Determination of Tuition Fees:

- 1.1. The Anointed university shall establish tuition fees for each academic program based on factors such as program costs, faculty salaries, facilities, and other operational expenses.
- 1.2. The tuition fees for each program shall be communicated to students in advance, allowing them to plan their finances accordingly.
- 1.3. The Anointed university shall periodically review and adjust tuition fees as necessary, taking into consideration factors such as inflation, market conditions, and the financial needs of the institution.

2. Payment of Tuition Fees:

- 2.1. Students shall be provided with clear guidelines and deadlines for the payment of tuition fees.
- 2.2. The university shall offer various payment options to accommodate students' financial circumstances, such as instalment plans or financial aid programs.
- 2.3. Students who are unable to meet the payment deadlines may be subject to late payment penalties or may face restrictions on course registration or access to university resources.

3. Financial Aid and Scholarships:

- 3.1. The Anointed university shall establish a financial aid program to assist students who demonstrate financial need and meet the eligibility criteria.
- 3.2. Scholarships and grants may be awarded based on academic merit, extracurricular achievements, or other specified criteria.
- 3.3. The Anointed university shall provide information and support services to help students navigate the financial aid application process and explore available scholarship opportunities.

4. Tuition Fee Refunds:

- 4.1. The Anointed university shall establish a refund policy for tuition fees in cases of withdrawal, leave of absence, or program termination.
- 4.2. The refund policy shall specify the deadlines and percentage of tuition fees that may be refunded based on the timing of the request and the student's enrolment status.
- 4.3. Students who withdraw or take a leave of absence within a specified period may be eligible for a partial refund of tuition fees, subject to the terms and conditions outlined in the refund policy.

5. Fee Transparency and Communication:

- 5.1. The Anointed university shall provide comprehensive and transparent information regarding tuition fees, including a breakdown of costs, payment schedules, and any additional fees or charges.
- 5.2. Students shall be provided with clear and accessible channels of communication to seek clarification or obtain further information about tuition fees and related financial matters.

6. Review and Appeals:

- 6.1. The Anointed university shall establish a process for reviewing and addressing appeals related to tuition fees, such as disputes over payment, eligibility for financial aid, or refund requests.

6.2. Students shall have the right to submit an appeal, and the university shall ensure a fair and timely resolution of the appeal, following established procedures.

Conclusion:

The tuition fees policy of Anointed University ensures transparency, fairness, and financial sustainability for both the institution and its students. This policy guides the university community in determining, paying, and refunding tuition fees, while providing support and resources to students in managing their financial obligations.

This Tuition Fees Policy of Anointed University was adopted on 10th of October 2008 and shall serve as a guiding document for all matters related to tuition fees within the university.

Prof. Kunle George Aladeoba. PhD.
President, Anointed University Worldwide.